

What Should My Child Be Doing?

Here are some things that your child should be doing every day:

Age – 24 Months

- follows directions with 2 parts (ex. Get your ball and show it to Grandma”)
- says 100 or more words
- says words like “you, me, mine”
- says 2 words together (Mommy up, more ball)
- people can understand what your child says at least half of the time
- likes to be with other children and tries to copy what they say and do
- holds books the right way and turns the pages
- pretends to read
